FIFTY YEARS AFTER

The boys who went out 1861-64 and came home in 1865 and '66 and who are yet alive range from 65 to 80 years of age. Few are under 65, some are over 80. The majority however are under 70. The names of about 140 are given who either get mail out of Olathe office or who belong to the G. A. R. Post, but are more removed.

Something less than 200 sleep their last sleep in the Olathe Cemetery. Of this 140 given here 24 are Kansas soldiers. 45 of the rest came to Kansas before 1874. Half of the 140, I think, were farmers in Johnson county within 5 years after the close of the war, and of recent years have left their farms and moved into town. Very few now live out in the country. In good weather the old boys congregate in the park and have good sociable times, yet as winter and spring come around how many faces disappear.

For this reason mainly we prepare this little memorial now that we may the more easily remember what commands our comrades belonged to. In 1889 the Kansas assessors listed separately all the soldiers in the state by counties. Copies of these papers went to Topeka, and books may now be seen at the G. A. R. Dept. Office. I presume Johnson County then had 500 Ex-soldiers. In 1894 the G. A. R. Posts of the county had about 275 members. It is very sad to find a great many Ex-soldiers yet who hold aloof from that organization, for it is one that benefits the Old Soldier in many ways..

The Post in Olathe in 1894 had 86 members. I think they now have about 80. This edition does not attempt to state any organization the Old Soldier belongs to, nor their condition in life. We are all comrades who served our country and we should love one another.

Fifty years.—How many changes. How easy for us now to travel to Re-unions or to visit our friends as compared to a time 50 years after the close of the Revolution.

We have in Olathe an elderly man, by name Mr. Kenton, who is a distant relative of Gen. Simon Kenton, the old renowned Indian hunter and Kentucky and Ohio pioneer. From talking about him to our citizen Kenton, I was led to look up Simon Kenton's history: Born in Va. in 1755, he early emigrated to the Western country then of Kentucky and was a kindred spirit of Daniel Boone. Yet the latter left Kentucky and moved to Missouri, and his son was a pioneer here in Kansas. But Simon Kenton stayed there and helped redeem Kentucky and Ohio from both British and Savage rule. Among the foremost in its conquest, always out with the volunteers of the Revolution and War of 1812 if it had to do with Indians, British and the Northwest Territory.

He established himself early in the 19th century, in Logan Co., Ohio, and when he was 77, about 1832, he felt that the Old Soldiers should meet once more. He issued an address, that having three months perhaps to get circulated among his comrades through the Northwest, he hoped would effect a re-union. He says: "Fellow citizens, being one of the first after Col. Daniel Boone, who aided in the conquest of Kentucky and the West, I am called upon to address you. I wish to see once more, before I die, my surviving friends. My solemn promise, made 50 years ago,* binds me to meet them. You have all been invited to meet at Cincinnati, Ohio, November, 1832, and I ask the Patriot Captains of Steamboats, Stage Contractors and Companies, and generous Inn Keepers to make provisions for the going and returning to Cincinnati from all parts of the West. We know they will deem it an honor to accommodate the gray-haired veterans of the West who go to meet their companions for the last time. For this may be the only opportunity they will ever have to serve their old fathers, the pioneers of the West.

SIMON KENTON."

Simon Kenton fell sick and could not attend the November re-union, though living perhaps only 100 miles distant. Perhaps about this time he got his pension, which the young and poor Uncle Sam had been unable to pay any one until about 1832. Kenton died in 1836, aged 81.

Now, my dear old comrades of the present day, do not grumble. Just make the best of all our blessings and stand up for our Country and our Flag. Yours truly,

CHARLES R. GREEN.
